

BEEVIF

Baiden Etsiakoh Eagle Vision Foundation

Accra, Ghana | Non-Governmental Organisation

About BEEVIF

The Baiden Etsiakoh Eagle Vision Foundation (BEEVIF) is a Ghana-based, non-governmental organisation headquartered in Accra. Operating for over a decade, BEEVIF is committed to sustainable community development in underprivileged areas across rural Ghana. Through partnerships with sponsors and volunteers, the foundation delivers impactful programmes that transform lives and uplift entire communities.

Our Mission

To empower individuals and families by providing access to quality education, promoting health and well-being, and ensuring food security.

Core Focus Areas

Education

Supporting learning programmes and institutions — including Special Grace Academy — to provide quality educational opportunities for children in underserved communities.

Health

Running medical outreach, awareness campaigns, and support services to advance community well-being and improve access to healthcare.

Food Security

Implementing relief aid programmes and nutrition initiatives to help families access adequate, nutritious food and reduce poverty.

Key Initiatives

- Medical outreach across rural Ghanaian communities
- Relief aid distribution for vulnerable families
- Educational support and school programmes
- Poverty reduction and livelihood development

Leadership Team

Name	Role
Thomas Etsiakoh	Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

Hannah Etsiakoh	Vice President
Samuel Gracious Etsiakoh	International Liaison Officer
Bertha Gharthey	Administrator

Partner With Us

BEEVIF actively seeks sponsors, donors, and partners to expand its reach and deepen its impact within underprivileged communities. If you or your organisation would like to collaborate, please visit our website below.

Learn more about us:

<https://sites.google.com/view/beevif/about>